NOTE.

For Index to this Catalogue see last page.

CORRESPONDENTS are requested to send early orders, thus giving me time to enter them in my books before I leave for New York, as it is no uncommon thing for me to receive orders far exceeding the number of lots in the catalogue. Address as below, but late orders may be sent to me at New York, care of the auctioneers. The coin dealers of New York, Philadelphia and Lancaster, Pa., will also faithfully execute bids that may be entrusted to them.

Catalogues 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, will be sent to order as soon as they can be got ready.

The price of No. 96, over 3,000 numbers, printed on thick paper, and priced in red, will be $2.00 each.

The price of No. 97, Archæology, printed on thick paper, and priced in red, over 1,500 numbers, will be $1.50 each.

No. 98, Bric-a-brac, etc., comprising about 1,000 numbers, printed in my usual style, on thick paper, will be furnished for $1.00 each.

No. 99, Coins and Medals, about 1,500 numbers, in the usual style, will be sold for $1.25 each.

No. 100, Harlow E. Woodward's Collection of Stamps, the finest and largest ever offered in the country, including Revenues, almost a complete set, with a large display of postage stamps, American and Foreign, $1.50 per copy.

No. 101, a collection of Greek and Roman Coins, from the same source as No. 95, from the Southwest. This catalogue will be illustrated with five or six plates, in colors, in the highest style of the photographic art. Price, $2.00 without discount.

AMATEUR PUBLICATIONS.

19 AMATEUR'S Annual. Portraits of boy-editors, the coming newspaper men of the age. Very scarce.

20 AMATEUR'S Annual for 1872. Small 8° ports.; has become very scarce. 2 copies.

21 AMATEUR Books and Newspapers. Of these interesting though transient publications, this is believed to be unrivalled in extent. It contains nearly everything that has been published by amateurs in books or newspapers; it is rare and well worth a place in the Library of Congress, as the time will come when these things will be much sought for, as showing the efforts of early American editors, who are fast taking the place of professionals on the leading papers of the country. Alphabetically arranged, and containing not much less than 10,000 pieces.

22 AMATEUR'S Guide, Directories, etc.; v. p. 12 pcs.

23 AMATEUR Newspapers. A collection believed to be the largest and nearest complete of any ever formed. In it will be found sets more or less complete, of all or nearly all these transient publications. As the amateur editors of the period become the active editors of the next generation, this collection is recommended to the attention of collectors, since in the future this class of literature cannot fail to be more sought for than at present, and it would not be unworthy the attention of the Librarian of Congress in whose cases they might appropriately find a resting place. No amount of money could procure so valuable a set. They are transient in their interest, and therefore short-lived. Few of the series reach even a second volume, though several have been continued for years, and a number have acquired a fixed and reputable position.

24 AMATEUR Newspapers, Voices of Angels; etc. 94 pcs.

25 AMATEUR Newspapers, small size; thick vol. bound in half calf.

26 AMATEUR Papers. Many Canadian. 150 pcs.

27 AMATEUR Papers, etc. 72 pcs.

28 AMATEUR Papers, etc.

29 AMATEUR Papers. The Pilot and the Enterprise; two of the earliest appearing amateur papers.

30 AMATEUR Papers. A good assortment. 233 pcs,

31 AMATEUR Papers, Catalogues, Announcements, etc. 318 pcs.

32 AMATEUR Publications. Cruise of the Ohio, etc., Under the Black Flag. 7 pcs.

33 AMERICAN Youth. Report of a delegation of amateur editors to the World's Fair at Vienna. Photographs of the editors; scarce.

34 ART Amateur. Several numbers.

35 AMATEUR Publication. Edith, the girl detective. Chicago, 1870.

36 AMATEUR and Regular Papers. Many from Canada. 92 pcs.

308 WOODWARD, W. E. The following list, complete from the beginning, is numbered according to Woodward's list of Coin Sales, a few being designated by letters. All are neatly priced, mostly in red ink, and Nos. 9, 11 and all after 18 are printed on heavy tinted paper, especially for Collectors. All are rare. The names of former owners are given with the date and place of sales. With few exceptions the sales were made by Bangs & Co., of New York City. The clerical labor of pricing the catalogues cost little less than one dollar each. The collection entire is very rare, and is hardly known in perfection. Many are extremely rare and can be obtained only from the publisher, and a number of them are unprocurable. Several are illustrated with fine photographs, of which the number is given after the title of the catalogue. The illustrated numbers are particularly scarce. This is the only set that can be by any possibility offered for sale, as not another one remains.

EARLY NEW ENGLAND IMPRINTS.

408 A | Devout & Humble | Enquiry | into the reasons of the | Divine Council | In the death of | Good Men. An early Boston imprint of the 17th century. First page injured, otherwise a good impression and very rare. Running title, "An inquiry into the death of good men." Rough edges. This book is doubtless a Mather. 18° pp. 16.

409 AMECIO, William. Lectures on the Psalms of David. Small 4° sheep. Autograph of Elijah Dunbar. "Ex libris Patris et Avi." Amsterdam, 1585. From the Mather library, presumed to have been presented by C. Mather.

410 ANCIENT work in Latin. Thick folio, old binding. s. a. From the Mather library. Autograph of Elijah Dunbar, 1607.

411 BAXTER, Richard. Catholick Theologies or Pacification of the Dogmatical Word Warriors. Folio, old calf, London, 1675. Another Book from the old Mather Library, like several of the preceding, presented to Samuel Dunbar from the original library. Portrait on copper of Richard Baxter.

412 BREECHES Bible. An original copy from the Mather Library. Laid between the leaves are some ridiculous statements concerning this volume. This is said to have come over in the Mayflower to Newburyport.

413 CALVIN, John. Institutio Christianiae Religionis. From the Mather Library, presented to Samuel Dunbar. Thick 8° calf. Geneva, 1592.

414 COLMAN, Benj. Baptismal Sermon. 18° boards. Boston, 1722. Like most of the originals of the Mathers of Boston it is a very rare book. Contains a preface from the object of the ordinance, R. Judah Morris, a converted Jew, also an introduction, signed by Increase Mather, dated Cambridge, May 1st, 1722. 18° half bound in sheep. A rare Mather volume; together with two separate works, "The Whole Truth, etc.," written by Morris. Small 8° half bound. Boston, 1722.

415 ANOTHER copy.

416 ANOTHER of the books from the old Mather family, presented by Samuel Mather, son of Cotton, to Samuel Dunbar. A volume of ancient commentaries on the Prophet Hosea, with original presentation inscription to Samuel Dunbar from Samuel Mather. Contains a friendly presentation note in the handwriting of Samuel Mather, with numerous marginal notes to text, in the same handwriting. Hilderbergia. 4° old calf. London, 1605.

417 ANOTHER of the books of the Mather family, presented to Samuel Dunbar, 1724, by Samuel Mather, son of Cotton Mather. Thick 4°.

418 ANOTHER volume from the Mather family, presented by Samuel Mather to Samuel Dunbar, 1704. Contains a Greek inscription.

419 ANOTHER. Early Religious work, from the Mather, and later from the Dunbar Library; a presentation copy from original library of the Mathers. 1641. Thick folio, old calf, Geneva. From the press of Jacob Stoer. Contains Stoer's quaint monograms. Original of the period.

420 COMMENTARY. Collectors of books will remember the sale of the Library of the Mather family: many of the books passed into the hands of George Brinley of Hartford, Conn. This volume, originally from the Mather Library, was presented by Samuel Mather to Samuel Dunbar, as shown by the inscription in writing of Dunbar, 1728. This is a volume of Commentaries on the Epistle to the Hebrews. 8° old calf. Hilderbergia, 1513.

421 COMMENTARY by David Paeria on the Epistle to the Romans. Contains a presentation note from Samuel Mather to Samuel Dunbar, 1725, and on the title page 1705. The autograph of Richard Mather is extremely rare. 4° old calf. Frankfort, 1578. Presentation note on the title page from Mather Byles, 1725. 32° sheep.

422 COMMENTARY by David Paeria on the Epistle to the Hebrews. Contains an autograph of Richard Mather, progenitor of the Mathers in America, and also contains a presentation note from Samuel Mather to Samuel Dunbar, 1725.

423 COTTON, John. The General Practice of the Churches of New England relating to | Baptism, | vindicated, | or some | essays | on this important question. With some letters that passed on the subject, by John Cotton, A. M., of Plymouth. In good condition. Not in the Brinley Library, and is worthy to have been there. Extremely rare. 8° uncut, pp. 72.

424 CUMMINGS, M. A. Discourses to a Society of Young Men. With a selection of pamphlets published on various occasions, chiefly on controversial theological points formerly of local importance. 8° calf, v. d.; from the old Dunbar Library.

425 EARLY New England Sermons: funeral, ordination, etc. 8° sheep, v. p., v. d. 12 bound together.

426 EDWARD Stillingfleet, D. D., Lord Bishop of Worcester. Ground of Natural and Revealed Religion. Portrait on copper. London, 1724. Folio, old calf. Inscription on fly-leaf by Samuel Mather; in fine condition. Tract Primer. 18° cloth.

427 EDWARDS, John. Theologia Reformata, from the Dunbar Library, originally from Mercy Peirce from her father. Large folio, panelled calf. London, 1726.

428 Elijah Dunbar. Patris Dono. This volume from the old Mather Library, is a scriptural proof of the propriety of infant baptism and infant church membership, and was doubtless used in the preparation by Increase Mather of his reply to John Norcot. A most rare book, being undoubtedly an unique volume; sold in Woodward's Library, 1869, for $250, (probably governed in its value by its weight,) the largest price ever paid for an American book; contains on the fly-leaf its ownership and a variety of manuscript entries. Square 8° old sheep. London, 1651. The book is thus traced to the former ownership of the Mathers, by an actual chain of title from the 17th century.

429 Erasmus. 18° sheep. From the Mather Library; a present to Rev. Mr. Dunbar. London, 1717.

430 Hill, Joseph. Greek and Latin Dictionary. On the fly-leaf autograph of former owner, 1699: probably from the old Mather Library. 8° old calf, sign., title, imp.

431 Holy Bible. A portion of the Holy Scriptures in Greek; copious annotations in manuscript, also in Greek. Large 4° bound in vellum. A manuscript note on the fly-leaf recites that the book was bought by Rev. Elijah Dunbar from his classmate, J. B. Howe, and that it was formerly of the Mather Library and probably owned by Richard Mather of Dorchester, and later from the Mather Byles Library of Boston. The annotations are on inserted leaves; very ancient and very voluminous, and showing great labor. The volume is unique and curious, and well worthy of study; as stated in the note, from the Mather and Byles Libraries; bears evidence of venerable antiquity.

432 Holy Bible. Breeches Bible. [See Genesis iii. 7.] A rare Bible from the Library of the Mathers. "Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they sewed figge tree leaves together and made themselves breeches." 4° ancient calf with bands. Concerning the rarity of this book a considerable amount of taffy has been printed in the Boston "Transcript" under the head of Notes and Queries.

433 Hopkins, Stephen, A. M. Magazine; this magazine, published in New England, was devoted to the principles of religion according to Edwards, Hopkins, Strong and other divines of the period. 8vo sheep. Newburyport, 1783.

434 HOSEA. Commentary on the Prophet; one of the ancient Mather books. Samuel Mather, 1706, on the fly leaf, back of the title pages. Presentation note from Samuel Mather, dated July, 1725. Many marginal references in the handwriting of Samuel Mather. 4° old sheep.

435 HUTCHINS, Thomas. Xenophon's Anabasis. Another volume from the original Mather Library. Presented to the Dunbar Library, when Dunbar was in Harvard College. 12° sheep. Cambridge, 1785.

436 MATHER, Increase. A Discourse | Concerning | Faith and Fervency | in | Prayer | and the Glorious Kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ on | earth, now approaching. | Delivered in several Sermons, | in which the signs of the present | times are considered, with a true | account of the late wonderful and | astonishing success of the Gospel in Ceilon, Amboina and Malabar. Followed by quotations in five lines. Small 8° old calf, a few of the last leaves torn, but the book generally in good condition. Excessively rare.

437 MATHER, Increase. A number of Religious Discourses, early Boston imprints; one on Apostasy; all of course on religious subjects. A number of separate titles bound together. A Sermon on the execution of two men, wherein is showed that excess in wickedness doth bring untimely death. Printed for R. P. in Boston, 1685. A very early New England Execution Sermon. Such profitable occasions were always religiously improved in early New England. In poor condition, but a very rare book.

438 MATHER, Increase. The | Life & Death | of | the Reverend Man of God, | Mr. Richard Mather | Teacher of the Church in | Dorchester | in New England. | Cambridge | Printed for S. G. and M. J. 1670. Preface by Increase Mather. A fine, almost clean copy. Small 4° First leaf a little injured at the upper right hand. A scarce biography and extremely rare book.

439 MATHER, Increase. | Teacher of a Church in Boston, N. E. Quotation in five lines. Historical Discourse | concerning the | Prevalency | of | prayer | Wherein is showed that New England's late deliverance from the heathen is an eminent answer of prayer. | Boston, 1677. Printed and sold by John Foster, 1677.

440 MATHER. Remarkable Providences. A portion of one of the rarest works by the Mathers, from pages 167 to 300. Portion of the original work on Witchcraft; one of the rarest books existing.

441 MATHER, Samuel, some time Pastor in the Church at Dublin. This book undoubtedly from the old Mather Library, presented to Samuel Dunbar. Square calf. London, 1705.

442 ANOTHER book from the old Mather Library; Baxter, Richard. Catholick Theologie. Plain, pure and peaceable, for the pacification of the dogmatical word warriors. Copper-plate portrait of Baxter. Folio, calf. London, 1675.

443 MATHER, Increase. A sermon preached in Boston, July, 1682. Contains a preface by the Rev. Author, and an announcement of some of his books. Amongst others his "Illustrious Providences." The book is nearly complete, but stained and soiled. Small 8° Boston, 1682.

444 MATHER, Increase. Preface to a discourse by Jonathan Mitchel, of Cambridge, in New England. The discourse itself is on the glory to which God called believers by Jesus Christ. 8° old sheep. Boston. S. Green. Printed for Benj. Elliott and sold at his shop. 1721. Contains genealogy of the Mitchel family. Small 8° with preface by Walter, minister of Roxbury. Very rare. Introduction to the reader by John Collins. In good condition, but a little stained.

MANUSCRIPT.

1100 A MANUSCRIPT Account-book kept in the store of Ebenezer Fox. Mostly in his handwriting. Unique, 1798. Bound in rough leather. Ebenezer Fox was the original of the book "A Relic of the Revolution," numbered 171 above.

1101 A MANUSCRIPT Notice "of the observance of Forefather's Day at Plymouth.

1102 BOSTON. MS. description of Front Street, now Harrison Avenue, original paper for the Suffolk County Journal, Roxbury. By W. E. W.

1103 DEBLOIS, Gilbert. Copies of his private letters to his family and friends in America: dated Aug., 1781 to Dec. 31, 1785. A nearly complete series of his letters to his wife and others of his family. These familiar epistles are directed to his son, William, and a portion to his wife. They are beautifully written and historically very valuable, being of the period of the Revolutionary War. I noticed in a recent number of the of the "Boston Transcript" the death of Mr. Stephen G. Deblois of this family, who was long connected with various charities of Boston. Mr. Gilbert Deblois was a Loyalist, whom it was fashionable to call a "Tory," he being loyal to his King. These letters are filled with gossip such as a Boston merchant would be likely to write to his wife and family, and cover a long period of residence in England during his absence from Boston, which extended to nearly five years.

1104 FULTON, Robert B. Manuscript Documents in Chancery concerning his invention of steam boats, and the first one navigated by himself on the waters of the Hudson River. These documents are original, and treat of the introduction of and running of steam boats on the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers. All of these copies of documents in Chancery relating to the Will of Fulton are drawn in the handwriting of Murray Hoffman, and signed by him as Master in Chancery. The originals refer to documents signed Robert Fulton, Cornelia Fulton, and their children, Robert, Julia, and Mary Fulton. An interesting series relating to one of the most important discoveries of the age,—steam boats,— by the inventor.

1197 Authorship; A Tale. 8° boards, rough edges. Boston, 1830.

1198 Autograph. Lady Agnes Frankland. This autograph is amongst the rarest of American signatures. The letter was addressed to her friend, Mrs. Deblois, and concerns matters in Revolutionary Boston. Lady Frankland was in the city of Lisbon at the time it was destroyed by an earthquake, and rescued her husband from imminent danger in that catastrophe. This letter was written in a bold, handsome hand. She has been supposed to have been illiterate, but this gives no evidence that such was the case; it is well written, in the hand of a cultured lady. "Boston in the Colonial Times," by Elias Nason, M. A., rubricated title, thick tinted paper, Albany, 1865. This autograph will be sold with "Boston in the Colonial Times," to which it forms a most appropriate illustration. Sir Henry Frankland and Governor Shirley came to this country together. Sir Henry married Agnes Surriage. His estate at Hopkinton passed into the hands of Elias Nason, and more recently the estate of Gov. Shirley, in the city of Roxbury, became the property of the writer of this catalogue, by whom it was restored and fitted up, and has long been a prominent landmark in Roxbury, Mass.

1199 AUTOGRAPH Document, signed Frederick Wm. Baron de Steuben; relates to a farm in the township of Steuben, in the county of Herkimer, in the State of New York; signed by Baron Steuben in person, with witnesses. This farm forms a part of the famous grant which has long been known as the heritage of the brave Baron Steuben. The grant was made to Simeon Fuller, and dated July 26th, 1793. Much of the land in Herkimer Co. is held under original grants from Baron Steuben.

1200 AUTOGRAPH. A letter from Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States, to John Randolph, of Roanoke, presenting a book on the subject of teaching the Dumb to speak. With autograph note from the author, F. Green. A work of exceeding rarity, in which the facts narrated are disputed by medical men, and declared to be incredible, non-existent and untrue. 12° blue morocco, full gilt. London, 1833.

1215 Benedict, David. History of the Baptists in America. Has a portrait of the author, also of Roger Williams, from the original, now in the possession of W. Elliot Woodward, supposed to be by Sir Godfrey Kneller, and believed to be a portrait of the distinguished original from life. For historical memoranda, see reverse of the portrait, the authenticity of which has been disputed, but the owner believes it to be genuine and original: this fact, its former owner, Mr. Jones, of New York, formerly of Wales, strenuously believed, and never admitted a doubt on the subject. The original, if its authenticity could be established beyond cavil, would undoubtedly bring $5,000 and more. The venerable Samuel G. Drake, during the last year of his life, criticised this painting and questioned its authenticity in the American Historical Journal. A few days before his death he called on me and I submitted the portrait to his examination; he declared his great interest in it, and assured me that had he seen it before he wrote his article, it would never have been printed. The portrait itself may be seen in this sale under the head of Painting, subject, Roger Williams.

1384 Holy Bible. This translation is made by the celebrated "Thomas Matthew," — whose true name, tradition says, was the martyr John Rogers. This Bible was brought to America by the Rev. Robert W. Cushman, who preached the first sermon in Plymouth. It is marked in writing of Mrs. Cushman, "Coverdale Bible," but I am informed that this is much rarer than "Coverdale's," and more highly prized. It was brought to America, 1621. This Bible during Bloody Mary's reign was for many years buried in the earth, by which it was much injured. An effort at restoration, covering many pages, has been made in ink. It is filled with illuminated capitals and wood-engravings. It remained from 1620 to 1885 in the family of Robert Cushman and his immediate descendants, from one of whom I bought it for $100.00. It was kept for Charlotte Cushman, the tragedian, who was for a long time desirous of obtaining it. Mrs. Cushman, from whom I made the purchase, was a lineal descenddant of Robert Cushman and the Woodward family. Owing to its historical relations it was held by Mr. Cushman and his family almost above price.

1408 IMPORTANCE of Right Views in Matrimony, set forth in a sermon preached in Rockingham County, N. H., at the celebration of the marriage of Samuel G. Bishop, and Abigail Tuck. This volume contains also the rarest of all known Washington eulogies, with autograph note from the author, presented to Samuel G. Drake, the historian of Boston. Contains all the other works of Samuel G. Bishop, whom I judge was an old tiger. Every tract contained here is excessively rare, and, I understand, unique. I bought this book as a great favor from the library of Mr. Drake, who valued it very highly, and at the sale of my Library in 1857, paid me for it again, one hundred dollars, in accordance with a promise from him that he should buy it again when it should be offered for sale. Mr. Bishop presents his compliments to the Hangman, whom with his family he hangs in a group on a gallows 75 feet high. Marble covers, half polished morocco. Gilmanton, N. H., 1800.

1409 REPRINT of Bishop's Eulogy. Privately reprinted, strictly for presentation copies, not one ever sold by W. E. W., but a number have been placed in the hands of private owners. How did they get them? Probably they did not steal them, but I do not know. This volume contains the matter referred to in Drake's preface in Eulogy on Washington; an interesting affair.

NUMISGRAPHICS.

1823 A list of Catalogues of Coins and Medals sold at auction in America, with price lists of coins issued by dealers, and other publications concerning the subject. Royal 8° thick paper, with a fac-simile catalogue by Benj. Watkins of Salem. The first coin catalogue of the class. This volume contains brief notices of the coin dealers of the country; all who have ever issued catalogues for sales.

NUMISMATICS.

1824 A large box filled with scraps sufficient for a large volume, about 1000 pcs. These cuttings are of the most interesting description and relate almost exclusively to Numismatics. One of these cuttings contains an important notice of the medal struck for the North-West Expedition under Kendrick and Ingraham, 1788.

1825 A number of Mason's earliest and scarcest Handbooks and Circulars. 9 pcs.

1826 A series of copy plates, coins, medals, etc. Collected to illustrate a work on Numismatics. A very large unnumbered catalogue, and a very choice collection of the kind. Some photographs. A most rare assortment, for the collection of which many volumes have been rifled.

1827 A volume of Catalogues, Circulars of Coin Sales, 23 in number, from 1859 to 1861. Amongst the sales are Woodward's, Cogan's and others of the earliest in the country. Half calf, marbled edges. Several of the catalogues are extremely rare.

1861 CATALOGUE of the Collection of American Coins and Medals, of the late Chas. I. Bushnell. This work is certainly a chef d'oeuvre of the Messrs. Chapman. Elegantly illustrated, though the sale was far from being as claimed "the most important sale ever held," as it was neither the most important nor extensive and valuable one, and but for this statement which is simply untrue, the catalogue would still hold its place in the highest rank of American coin collections. The illustrations which are seen in this catalogue surpass all others which had heretofore appeared; they are in the highest style of photographic art.

1862 CATALOGUE of the Fewsmith Collection. Large paper, priced.

1863 CATALOGUE in Manuscript of the Collection of Cornelius M. Bogert. Rich in coins and medals, in silver and gold, especially antiques.

1922 KLINE, J. W. His Collection of Coins. Priced and named in the handwriting of Charles I. Bushnell. Full turkey morocco gilt, inside tooled. A handsome piece of binding and rare catalogue.

1923 KLINGBEIL. Catalogue of his frauds; electrotypes. Klingbeil has a bad name on account of his connection with counterfeit stone instruments sold as prehistorics.

1924 Lee, Wm. H. A Monograph on the Currency of the Confederate States of America. A description of the various notes and dates of issue, their varieties, series, sub-series, letters, numbers, etc., accompanied by photographs and the distinct variety of each issue. Presentation note from the author and in his autograph "Corrigenda et Addenda." Of this volume I believe no more than 20 copies were printed, hence is extremely rare and is the last and best authority. In a private note Dr. Lee informs me that only 30 copies were printed, 20 of which are on heavy paper, 10 on inferior paper and advises me that the Numismatic and Archaeological Society will not re-issue the work, hence no edition can hereafter be published, and it can never become less rare than to-day.

1925 Lewis, Dr. Winslow. Papal Medals and other Numismatic matters in Manuscript.

1929 Low, Lyman H. Coins and Medals.

1930 Low, Lyman H. Books, Coins and Medals for sale by him. This catalogue, like all of Mr. Low's productions, is actually loaded down, pressed in and freighted with learning.

1931 Low, Lyman H. Numismatics. Chock full of words of wisdom, as Mr. Low's catalogues are usually filled.

1932 Low, Lyman H. Surpasses anything that has ever been written on the subject of coins. These catalogues of course have no rivals, as they include in a very small space almost all that is known on the subject. Mr. Low, in addition to his trade in coins, kindly offers to instruct anybody in all facts they may desire to know in numismatics, including American, Foreign, Medieval and Ancient. This is a convenience, that for people who are not fortunate to live near his great metropolitan warehouse, cannot be realized, and therefore not fully appreciated. It is not often that knowledge is thus peddled without price, so in the style of the commercial drummer. 5 pcs.

1933 McGill and its Medals. Fully ill., limp cloth, gilt. Rarest of the Canadian numismatic books. Montreal, 1872.

1934 Manchester, Eng., Numismatic Society. Square 8° ill., scarce. 8 pcs.

All the volumes of the Reports to the Regents of the Smithsonian Institution filled with various monographs on various subjects in accordance with the will of Smithson. These are constantly growing more interesting and valuable from year to year, and embody detailed statements of the general progress of science since the formation of the Smithsonian Institution. They are of particular value since 1858. They exhibit the progress of science throughout the world, and show the increase of collections, particularly in Archaeology and Anthropology, of which the museum is able to show in its collections unparalleled treasures.

These volumes are all presented by the Smithsonian Institution to various scientists throughout the country and the world.

2830 Vans, Wm. This pamphlet, — designed to prove the rascality of the Codman family in Massachusetts, gives details of a most interesting and rare trial. Statement of facts in answer to the big book of 900 pages, published by Stephen Codman, executor and administrator. This is one of numbers of books published relating to the case of Vans in Boston. This man Vans vainly endeavored to gain some redress for his wrongs at the hands of the Codman family of Massachusetts. He kept up his claims till death, but as far as I know, without results. A case paralleled by this, involving a vast amount of money fairly earned which should have been paid years ago, is still in the Courts of Massachusetts, unless recently dropped out.

2868 WASHINGTON, George. Life, by David Ramsay, M. D. Frontispiece, inscribed rock, various engravings. 12° Baltimore, 1816.

2869 WASHINGTON, George. In Memoriam. An Oration on Braddock's Defeat.

2870 WASHINGTONIANA. Memorials of the Death of George Washington, with a list of tracts and volumes printed upon the occasion, and a catalogue of medals commemorating the event, the latter by W. Elliot Woodward, with several portraits of Washington. 2 vols. Small 4° large paper, style of the Bradford publications, heavy tinted paper, printed by Munsell; bound in half crimson turkey morocco by Bradstreet, in his best style, rough edges, top gilt.

2871 THE same work. 2 vols. Royal 8° Boston, 1865. Half green morocco, by Bradstreet.

2872 THE same work, of which only two copies were printed for subscribers at $10 each. Printed on Whatman's drawing paper. Half crimson turkey morocco, gilt top, rough edges, royal 4°.

2873 WOODWARD, W. E. Washington Memorial. 4° heavy tinted paper. Rubricated circulars relating to Woodward's Historical Series inlaid. Not published for sale; very rare. Uncut, rough edges.

WIGGIN'S HISTORICAL SERIES.

2874 WIGGIN, J. K. Bibliotheca Americana. Catalogue of his library. 8° pp. 194.

2875 WIGGIN, J. K. Virginia Series, No. 1. 8° uncut.

2876 WIGGIN'S Library of New England History. History of King Philip's War, by Benj. Church. Cap 4° tinted paper, uncut edges.

2877 HISTORY of the Eastern Expeditions against the Indians and French. Style uniform with the last. Half red turkey morocco, gilt top, rough edges.

2878 ANOTHER volume of the same series, being the third. Plain Dealing, or News from New England, by Thomas Lechford. Uniform in style and binding with the last.

2879 A FOURTH volume of the same series. Uniform in style and binding ; being Mourt's Relation, a Journal of the Plantation of Plymouth. The entire set. 4 vols. The set is scarce.

2880 NEWS from New England, 1676. Reprinted from an unique or very rare copy in the Library of John Carter Brown. Half light turkey morocco, gilt, bound by Bradstreet.

2881 PLAIN Dealing, or News from New England, by Lechford. No. 4 of Wiggin's Library of New England History. Edition limited to only 35 copies. Thick tinted paper, royal 4°.

2882 NEWS from New England. Reprinted from John Carter Brown's almost unique copy. Only 2 or 3 copies printed on Whatman's drawing paper. Boards, large 4°.

WOODWARD'S HISTORICAL SERIES.

2883 CALEF, Robert. The Witchcraft Delusion in New England, as exhibited by Mr. Cotton Mather and Robert Calef. Small 4° rough edges, half bound in crimson morocco, gilt. Binding by Bradstreet. The same work in royal 8°, style of the Bradford Club publications. Half green Turkey morocco, rough edges, gilt top. Bound in elegant style by Bradstreet. The same work royal 4°. Half crimson morocco, deep corners and backs. One of two or three copies printed on Whatman's drawing paper. A splendid specimen of book printing and binding. One set sold to a private library for $150 the set. 3 vols.

2884 DRAKE, Samuel G. Narrative, Remarks, Expository Notices and Historical Criticisms. Privately printed. Presentation copy by the Author. This tract explains why Mr. Samuel G. Drake of Boston never became a member of the Massachusetts Historical Society. Small 4° rough edges, uncut. Albany, 1874.

288 MS. COPY of Wm. Hubbard's original work, History of Indian Wars in New England. Contains Notes and Annotations by Mr. Drake. All in the neat writing of Mrs. Samuel G. Drake.

2886 PHILLIPS, Henry, Jr. Historical Sketches of American Paper Currency. 1st and 2d series. One of only 3 copies, printed on Whatman's drawing paper. Of course, excessively rare. On large paper. Half crimson turkey morocco, gilt tops, rough edges. The other copy sold to Judge Halliday for $50. Rubricated titles. Printed by Munsell. Bound by Bradstreet.

2887 THE same. Large 4° tinted paper. Printed by Munsell and bound by Bradstreet in half crimson turkey morocco, rough edges, gilt tops. 2 vols.

2888 RECORDS of Salem Witchcraft, copied from the original documents. 2 vols. Small 4° on heavy tinted paper, with illuminated initials, half red turkey morocco. Printed by Munsell and bound by Bradstreet, gilt top, rough edges. From the publication of these volumes rose the furor for large paper copies which swept over this country with great force. The volumes were published at $10 each. Long before I was able to deliver the edition orders came pouring in, and large paper copies had become almost legal tender at $200 each, at which price I sold many of them, and an offer was made by a bookseller of Philadelphia for the entire edition on small paper at $30 a set, but the balance of the edition having been already sold, I was unable to deliver a single copy. The reason for the unprecedented demand arose from the fact that Mr. Munsell came two copies short of the subscription list, hence the large price they straightway commanded. From this time large paper copies were in great demand, and collectors thought themselves fortunate to be counted amongst the favored ones, by securing a place on the subscription lists of publishers. To illustrate the furor, it may be mentioned that when Mr. H. B. Dawson issued the prospectus of his Battles by Sea and Land in the United States, many persons were glad to pay $200 in advance for the privilege of having their names put upon the subscription list for the large paper copies, at which price a number of transfers took place, the cash being paid in advance, and it is an interesting circumstance that when Mr. Dawson was ready to deliver the books, every subscriber, including those who had already paid the enhanced price, repudiated their subscriptions and declined to accept the volumes.

2889 RECORDS of Salem Witchcraft. Over-sheets of the small 4° edition. Several incomplete copies.

2890 SYMMES, Thomas. His Memoirs of the late fight at Piggwacket, with a Sermon occasioned by the Fall of the late brave Captain John Lovewell and several of his valiant Company at the heroic Action, there pronounced at Bradford, May 16, 1725. One of the earliest historical works relating to the Indian Wars in America. Title page reproduced from the second edition and the concluding portion copied from the same. The last nearly perfect copy sold in Woodward's Library, March, 1869, though but a fragment, brought at that time $125 and afterwards sold for $175. From the library of the late Almon W. Griswold.

2891 THE Founders of New England. Printed on Whatman's drawing paper. Illustrated with several portraits, including Mr. Drake, Mr. Barstow, and others. Some circulars, announcements, etc., inserted in the leaves. All the head and tail pieces in this volume were designed and engraved specially for the work.

2892 WOODWARD, W. Elliot. Historical Series. Vols. I. to III. Heavy tinted paper, royal 8° rubricated titles. 3 vols. Scarce.

2892*a* THE same work. 3 vols., small cap 4°. In the same style as the last.

2893 WOODWARD'S Historical Series. Vol. 8. The Annals of Witchcraft in New England and United States, by Samuel G. Drake, the last volume of the series. Nearly all the sets of this series lack the last volume, as it is scarcely known to bibliographers.

2894 WOODWARD, Dr. Ashbel. The Life of Gen. Nathaniel Lyon. Author's autograph. Presentation copy. 12° boards. Hartford, 1862.

ADDENDA.

The following books received too late for classification, are added as an addendum without regard to alphabetical order.

2895 CATALOGUES. Book Sales, Coin Sales, etc. A vast variety, unassorted. From amongst them the owner has sold many thousands of dollars' worth separately, and now offers them for sale entire. Without doubt the finest and most perfect collection of coin sale catalogues at present existing. The collection consists of selected copies fresh from the press in nearly every case. The catalogues contain numerous illustrations made by Sarony, Bierstadt and other artists. The catalogues are nearly all priced in red and black ink in the neatest manner, and there are many distinctly different. The collection comprises all of Woodward's catalogues and those of Cogan, Haseltine, Prosky and others, and includes the original Mickley, Macallister and McCoy catalognes; many hundred in number; will be sold by count.

2907 COLLECTION of Useful, Interesting and Remarkable Events, by Leonard Deming. Containing accounts of several noted trials. One about the history of 292 hen's eggs. 12° cloth. Middlebury, 1825.

2908 The Circular. A weekly paper published for the Oneida and Wallingford Communities. 12 vols. 4° in numbers. This series contains a history, nearly complete, of the Institute and its several steps during many years from its first inception to its dissolution. Probably another equally complete series cannot be found. This contains no reference to Guiteau the assassin of Garfield, but he is well known to have been a member of this Community for many years, and to have been in regular standing during his early life. The Oneida Community is distinguished for its efforts to found a newspaper gratuitously, and it may be said of it that it more nearly carried out its intention than any other class of men has done, by supporting a press for many years and creditably to the printing fraternity for its care and superiority of workmanship, mechanical and otherwise. The entire series is very rare, and probably does not exist to-day in any of the archives of the Community itself.

3634 A MANUSCRIPT relic of the Witchcraft Days of 1692, in Salem, Mass. Filled with writings of the Witch-Judges, Hathorne, Parrish, Corwin and others. Many accounts entered with the Ketch May-Flower, which was a famous name in Colonial times, beginning with 1660. Several names identified with the witchcraft delusion occur throughout this book from 1660 to 1672, and it is largely in the handwriting of the witch-judges, executioners and their subordinates, including Jonathan Corwin, one of the Sheriffs who hanged the witches, — a man famous in his day. This book was kept in the neighborhood in which Giles Corey lived, and the store in which he traded; but a diligent search through the book does not present his name, I think, though he died by the hand of the executioner. So large a number of the autographs of the Pilgrims can hardly be elsewhere discovered. In finest state of preservation, and the work embraces 274 pages, in a long, narrow volume.

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD'S

COIN SALE CATALOGUES.

[REPRINTED.]

Being in almost daily receipt of inquiries as to what catalogues of my series I am now able to furnish, and the prices of the same, I have prepared the following list as a general answer to all correspondents on the subject.

For most of my sales previous to No. 19, the editions of the catalogues were small, and several of them, including one Providence Sale, cannot be obtained. Others are extremely rare, and several which can now be procured will in a short time be amongst the unobtainable.

A printed list giving an account, somewhat in detail, of the first thirty sales, will be sent on receipt of Twenty-Five cents. The following numbers have reference to that list. All the catalogues are in good order, and neatly priced, mostly in red ink; a few have printed prices. The list is complete, and where a price is not given, the catalogue cannot be supplied.

In this line of coin catalogues there will be found descriptions, more or less full, of nearly every known American coin or medal; many pieces that are known to be unique may be traced here, not infrequently through several successive sales,— it being a well known fact that this list contains by far the largest proportion of all the celebrated American Collections that have ever passed through public sales, including those of Mickley, Finotti, McCoy, Ralston, Dohrmann, Lewis, Jenks, Ely, Holland, Marvin, Haines, Randall's Collection and stock, and many others scarcely less noted.

All of the following are printed on extra heavy tinted paper, especially for collectors, and the editions strictly limited to fifty copies. Many are nearly out of print; of some I have no more than from one to five copies each; several are illustrated as indicated by the number and the abbreviation "Pl.," for plate or plates. A few are of bric-a-brac and books, but nearly all are of coins and medals; such exceptions to the general rule are specified.

Many private collectors, Public Libraries, including the Boston Public Library, Masonic Lodges and other Institutions, have thought it worth their while to obtain complete sets of the series of these catalogues.

They are printed in extra style, on heavy tinted paper, solely for the use of collectors, and as they are furnished at actual cost they can be obtained only of the undersigned, as no inducement can be held out to dealers to handle them.

General orders may be sent for the future issues, which will be forwarded as the series is continued, thus avoiding the trouble of a separate order for each catalogue.

Orders are respectfully solicited.
